

2022

powered by  ONEOK

Board Skill-Up Series

a program of the Board Leadership Collaborative:

TYPROS

Board Basics with Wendy

These one-hour online sessions covering the basics of board service are hosted by Wendy Thomas.

Attending one of these sessions is required for board internship placement.

TENTATIVE DATES:

- January 13 (Thursday) @ Noon
- March 21 (Monday) @ 5:30pm
- May 17 (Tuesday) @ Noon
- October 17 (Monday) @ 5:30pm
- November 10 (Thursday) @ Noon

Email wendy@leadershiptulsa.org to receive the Zoom link and calendar invite.

FOR BOARD INTERNSHIP PARTICIPANTS

You must attend one of the Board Basics with Wendy sessions (left), two of the Board Skill-Up sessions (next page), and complete a Participation Survey (below) for each session you attend to qualify for board internship placement. It's easy to remember:

1 + 2 + 3

One Board Basics with Wendy

Two Board Skill-Ups

Three total Participation Surveys

PARTICIPATION SURVEY

Must be completed for each attended training to qualify for board internship placement.

Visit: leadershiptulsa.typeform.com/LTBoardSurvey22

Board Skill-Ups 2022

powered by

These one-hour sessions are a deep dive into specific topics related to board service. Attending two of these sessions is required for board internship placement.

August 1 (Monday)

EARNING REVENUE AS A NONPROFIT

Jessica Kinsey, Prodigy & Co

Donations from foundations, companies, and individuals make up most of the funding for nonprofits. But what if you could earn revenue through programming, products, or services? Learn the basics of how a nonprofit can earn revenue in a way that doesn't impact those you serve and isn't overly distracting for your staff.

October 3 (Monday)

BUILDING LONG TERM SUSTAINABILITY

Mark Loeber, The Advancement Group

Part of being a board member is creating a strong future for the nonprofit. Learn how planned giving creates opportunities to strengthen donor and nonprofit relationships and creates donors for life. Understand your role as a board member in building your nonprofit's future through endowment.

November 7 (Monday)

ADVOCACY IN THE NONPROFIT SECTOR

Lauren Corbut, Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits

Advocacy can mean anything from meeting with your political representative to educating the public and everything in between. This session will outline the best practices for create a strong advocacy strategy for your organization on a local, state, and national level.

December 5 (Monday)

ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER 101

Wendy Thomas, Leadership Tulsa

Many boards use "Roberts Rules of Order" as a way to manage decision making. The intent is not to be complicated or archaic but to provide for equitable participation and clarity of purpose. Learn the basics of how this meeting structure works as well as some alternative structures that are sometimes used.

LOCATION

Board Skill-Ups take place in person at the Leadership Center, located at 1151 S Elgin Ave in downtown Tulsa.

START TIME

Arrive between 5:00 - 5:30pm

Training from 5:30 - 6:30pm

RECORDINGS OF PAST BOARD SKILL-UP EVENTS

Visit leadershiptulsa.org/boardskillup to watch recordings of past Skill-Ups featuring our friends at the Oklahoma Center for Nonprofits.

Watching past sessions also counts toward the required trainings for board internships as long as you submit a participation survey (previous page).

TYPROS

There will be no trainings in July or September.